SPEAKER GARNER LEADS ATTACK ON PROPOSALS TO RE-ORGANIZE GOVERNMENT

Washington, Feb. 18.—(U.P.)—Speaker of the House Garner waxed eloquent in the plain-spoken Texas manner today in denouncing President Hoover's proposals for reorganization of the government departments to achieve economy.

"We thought we wanted to abolish a lot of bureaus—but hell's bells—he wants to create some new offices," the speaker commented. He was referring to the president's recommendations in his message yesterday suggesting additional agencies to handle such matters as reclamation and public works, among others.

Byrns Opens Attack
Democratic Floor Leader Rainey, who sat with Garner as the speaker voiced his views to newspapermen, said the house would do nothing about the president's recommendation that he be clothed with authority to reorganize the government, subject to approval by congress.

Shortly after Garner's explosion, the scheduled democratic fusillade was opened in the house by Chairman Byrns, of the appropriations committee, who declared that President Hoover "has created more commissions and boards—some of them without legal authority—than any other president."

"I think he could make a start by abolishing these," Byrns said. Rebellious members of the house expenditures committee charged that attempts were being made to "railroad" through the committee the proposed consolidation of the war and navy departments.

Plays "Railroading"
Representatives Schaefer, republican, Wisconsin, and Martin, democrat, Oregon, led the attack on the procedure.

"This is going to be railroaded," Schaefer said. "We have heard only one proponent of the bill. The other witnesses were opposed. This country should know what's what."

The consolidation has the backing of the house leadership, including Speaker Garner. It is opposed by the secretaries of war and navy.

Representative Williamson, republican, South Dakota, a proponent of consolidation, charged before the committee that President Hoover has been unable to secure co-operation "from one member of his cabinet" in the proposed economical reorganization of government departments.

ARCTIC'S ONE-MAN WAR ENDS; 'MOUNTIES' RIDDLE 'BUSH CRAZY' TRAPPER; GUN FIGHT

Aklavik, Northwest Territory, Feb. 18.—(U.P.)—The sharp crack of bullets in the unearthly cold and dusk of the Arctic winter has ended the superhuman fight of Albert Johnson, trapper whom the desolate north country drove to madness.

He ended his fight against capture by the Royal Canadian Mounted police as he began—pumping bullets at his pursuers until his body lay lifeless in the snow, cut to ribbons by rifle fire.

Johnson's last bitter stand for freedom added staff sergeant, Hersey, seriously wounded, to the list of casualties that already included Constable E. Newt Millen, slain, officer A. W. King, wounded and half a dozen troopers crippled by exposure since the one-man war began Dec. 31.

The end was dramatic, overhead droned Capt. W. R. "Wop" May, war ace, in his scouting plane. Below hurried Hersey and Noel Verville, trooper. They shouted encouragement to their hardy team of huskies. Behind at a little distance were Indians and trappers making up the rest of the posse which had tracked

CHICAGO PARES CITY FORCES TO STAVE OFF FINANCIAL CRISIS

NOT SINCE GREAT FIRE HAS CITY FACED SUCH A DISASTROUS SITUATION—CERMAK

Chicago, Feb. 18.—(U.P.)—With the solemn words "God Help Chicago," Mayor Anton Cermak today planned to dismantle the city government to a skeleton force to carry on during the acute financial crisis.

Adjournment of the state legislature until April 19 after passing only one of several measures for the relief of the Chicago fiscal tangle, has stranded the city, the mayor declared.

"Not since the Chicago fire has the city been confronted with such a disastrous situation," Cermak said. "We are the victims of politicians who have placed their self-interests above the acute needs of the people."

The one bill passed, Cermak said, was useless without the companion measures. The prospect was that the dwindling flow of funds to the city treasury would virtually cease. In view of this possibility, Cermak ordered a survey of all municipal departments preparatory to laying off thousands of employees, many of whom already have gone unpaid for weeks or months.

DEVALERA PARTY IN LEAD OVER COSGRAVE

Dublin, Irish Free State, Feb. 18.—(U.P.)—Eamon De Valera and his Fianna Fail party were increasing their lead today over President William T. Cosgrave's government candidates, as returns in the Irish Free State general election trickled in.

Latest tabulations showed a margin of ten districts for De Valera, with independents and labor candidates also gaining.

They were:
Fianna Fail (De Valera), 23. Administration, 17. Independents, 5. Labor, 2. There are 153 seats in the lower house (dail) of which Cosgrave formerly controlled 65 and De Valera 56. Both DeValera in County Clare and Cosgrave in Cork were overwhelmingly re-elected. Cosgrave's total poll reached 18,125 votes.

CONTRACTS FOR TWO HIGHWAY PROJECTS AWARDED IN STATE

ZIMMERMAN-MILACA LINK, AMBOY TO JUNCTION OF NO. 16 STRETCH ARE JOBS

St. Paul, Feb. 18.—(U.P.)—Contracts for two trunk highway paving jobs, eight grading projects and five bridges were awarded today by State Highway Commissioner C. M. Babcock. The contracts total $1,437,295.

Work on these projects will start as soon as the weather permits, Babcock said. Paving jobs generally can be started by May 1 while grading and bridge work usually is started somewhat earlier.

One of the paving jobs on trunk highway No. 18 from Zimmerman to Milaca, a distance of 21.6 miles, will complete the gaps in that route and provide continuous pavement to Onamia. Winston Bros., Minneapolis, received the contract on a bid of $337,367.

The other paving contract went to McLaughlin and Sons, Mankato, for $290,730 and was for 19.3 miles of paving on trunk highway No. 5 from Amboy to junction with No. 16. The work will extend paving on No. 5 from the junction near Mankato as far as Amboy.

FARMERS STRICKEN AREA TOO PROUD TO ASK FOR AID, LAMSON

STATE OFFICIAL SAYS THERE IS DANGER OF SOME FREEZING TO DEATH

St. Paul, Feb. 18.—(U.P.)—A sense of pride that would not allow them to ask for aid is responsible for the plight of 500 farmers of western Murray and eastern Pipestone counties who face starvation and freezing to death, William H. Lamson, secretary of the state executive council, revealed today.

Lamson said that there was a danger that some of the farmers might Lake Wilson, Minn., Feb. 18.—(U.P.)—All regular work was abandoned today as residents joined relief parties battling snow drifts to bring aid to approximately 500 poverty-stricken farmers and their cattle who face starvation and cold.

Tuesday's snow storm paralyzed the efforts of federal, state, county and private relief agencies whose representatives have started a flow of food and supplies to bring aid to those stricken in five townships of western Murray county and eastern Pipestone county.

freeze to death tonight unless relief parties could break through drifted side roads in outlying districts.

"Farmers of the stricken communities went down together," Lamson said, "because they shared what grain they managed to save from the ravages of drought and grasshoppers last fall."

Lamson reported that approximately 10,000 head of cattle are mortgaged in the area. Half of that number are down from lack of food.

"Thinking to tide themselves over the winter by mutual aid they neglected to bring their plight to public notice. On one farm there were 42 cattle down and the only feed available was a half a load of straw which has no nutritive value."

The storm which struck the region Tuesday night has made the distribution of relief supplies almost impossible, Lamson said. Farmers from the eastern part of Murray county, although in none too good shape themselves, are cutting hay and feed to the relief of their neighbors. Villages of the region are sending groceries and fuel.

NUNS SAVE CHARGES AS SCHOOL BURNS

Hawthorne, N. Y., Feb. 18.—(U.P.)—Twenty nuns today defied the flames that destroyed their St. Hyacinth school to carry their 23 children charges to safety.

One nun lost her life in rescuing the children. Firemen searching the ruins found the body of Sister Bernard, 65. She had been missing since shortly after the fire was discovered.

GLASS BITTERLY FLAYS BANKERS BLAMING THEM FOR CURRENT DEPRESSED BUSINESS

Washington, Feb. 18.—(U.P.)—American bankers are being battered by unprecedented complaints of cowardice, stupidity and selfishness. They are arraigned in the senate as hoarders of money and securities.

Preliminary to inevitable adoption of the Glass-Steagall bill, embodying the administration's credit and currency expansion program, they are being put on what one senator speaking privately and inelegantly called "the spot."

"The banking community and the federal reserve board yesterday were directly charged by Senator Glass, Dem., Va., with maladministration, and responsibility for current depressed conditions. A year ago there would have been quick defense. Now there is none."

But the bankers and the business community will get relief. The expansion bill reached the senate yesterday and debate continues today.

Glass accused the banks of "cowardice" and cited these figures for some of the districts, as of December 31:

District	Eligible Paper	Rediscounting
Richmond	$295,521,000	$55,000,000
Atlanta	292,943,000	34,490,000
Chicago	393,138,000	27,144,000
St. Louis	291,477,000	19,254,000
Minneapolis	286,329,000	4,699,000
Kansas City	392,050,000	15,398,000
Dallas	286,624,000	16,817,000
S. Francisco	729,350,000	31,375,000

Glass singled out Minneapolis for special criticism. He said, "They consider it a disgrace to use the federal reserve system."

The senator also maintained that only a small fraction of the member banks are without assets eligible for rediscount. He said Boston had 3; New York 4; Philadelphia 15; Cleveland 21; Richmond 7; Atlanta 2; Chicago 5; St. Louis 11; Minneapolis 7; Kansas City 4; Dallas 1; and San Francisco 11.

"The federal reserve system has been threatened with raids upon its gold supply by foreign nations, notably France," Glass said.

"There has been that threatening situation, the conjecture and it is a conjecture—being that that country wanted to affect our situation with respect to reparations and with respect to her indebtedness to the United States. I do not make that assertion; I say it is a conjecture."

HALF OF BUSINESS BLOCK SWEEP BY FIRE

Siren, Wis., Feb. 18.—(U.P.)—Flames enveloped half the business district of Siren today in a fire which spread from store to store and destroyed half a dozen business establishments before fire fighting apparatus could be brought from neighboring communities.

A preliminary estimate of the smoldering wreckage placed the loss at $100,000. None was hurt.

Apparatus from Webster, Grantsburg and Frederick was able to save only Bacon's hotel and the Bank of Siren from the flames which swept the south side of the main street.

The fire was first discovered shortly after midnight by Mrs. Hannah Olson, who lived across the street from the row of buildings destroyed. Siren has no fire fighting apparatus and equipment was summoned from Webster and later from other nearby communities.

FAR-REACHING PLAN URGES ABOLITION OF GAS, GERM WARFARE

PROPOSES BAN ON ALL EXPORT OR IMPORT OF WARLIKE ARMAMENTS

Geneva, Feb. 18.—(U.P.)—Germany, practically disarmed under world war treaty terms, submitted far-reaching disarmament proposals to the world disarmament conference today.

Prohibition of Gases
They included abolition of all air armaments, destruction of all air reserves or stocks, abolition of co-scription, prohibition of heavy machinery and tanks, limitation of the size of warships, and prohibition of aircraft carriers and submarines.

Germany asked that warships be limited to 10,000 tons and guns to 280 millimeters caliber, about 11 inches.

She urged prohibition of gases and germ warfare and a ban on the export of warlike armaments.

Other recommendations were:
Fixation of the percentage of army officers to the lowest possible level, prohibition of use of police forces, gendarmerie, and similar organizations for military purposes.

"There can only be one system of disarmament—equality applicable to all governments," Rudolph Nadoiny, German ambassador to Turkey said. "Germany demands the prohibition of fortresses in cases where they constitute a direct menace to neighboring countries owing to the proximity of frontiers."

Germany Already Disarmed
(This was taken to be a reference to the vast scheme of frontier fortification erected by France.)

"The delegation wishes to make clear that Germany cannot accept a disarmament convention unless its provisions are equally applicable to Germany and other signatories," Nadoiny said.

"Germany has already disarmed," he continued. "Her disarmament must be considered indicative of the direction of disarmament other League of Nations members must follow particular stress being laid on the equality of right for all league members."

REBELS OPEN FIRE ON COSTA RICA TROOPS

San Jose, Costa Rica, Feb. 18.—(U.P.)—The United States legation was evacuated today after rifle and machine gun fire spattered the building during fierce fighting between rebels and loyal troops and civilians.

The legation is opposite the Bella Vista barracks, from which the rebels launched an attack in their effort to take the presidential palace.

United States Minister Charles C. Eberhardt of Salina, Kan., and two members of his staff were at the palace when fighting started and could not reach the legation. Other staff members left the legation building.

The rebel attack was beaten off. The government announced that the rebels threatened to bombard the city and that 3,500 loyal soldiers would be sent against them. The rebels lost five men.

Merchants Enthusiastic Over "Dollar Days" Insuring Representation of All Lines of Merchandise

"Dollar Days"—presaging a bargain festival for shoppers of Brainerd and the tributary territory—will find The Daily Dispatch heralding the news of the unusual and almost unheard of values planned by participating merchants in a territorial coverage the scope of which will attract new trade to local business houses from the rich and fertile community in an outside the city's environs.

Blanket coverage of the tributary towns by The Daily Dispatch in this great selling event will find merchandise of the participating merchants being offered for introduction into homes throughout the Brainerd trading radius.

Already, more than a score of merchants have signed for participation in this merchandising movement planned for Thursday and Friday, Feb. 25 and 26. Their places of business will be embellished with banners, streamers, pennants flaunting the "Dollar Days" motif and all are planning interesting and novel window displays in anticipation of the sales event. Not only will the dollar be almighty but corresponding price slashes will be apparent in all other lines of merchandise. The scope of the bargain event will be store-wide offering not only reasonable merchandise but new shipments of the latest styles and designs.

With representation already assured in practically every line of merchandise, shoppers are assured of a wide selection of values that defy duplication. Remember the dates—next Thursday and Friday, February 25 and 26.

Shanghai, Friday, Feb. 19.—(U.P.)—The Chinese army, ignoring a Japanese ultimatum that it retire from Shanghai by Saturday, began a heavy bombardment of the Japanese fleet and the Japanese quarter of the international settlement early today.

The batteries of the 19th Chinese army opened up the most severe bombardment in 40 hours, at 12:20 a. m., aiming at the Japanese flagship, the cruiser Idzumo, and the Japanese marine headquarters in Hongkew.

The Chinese shells missed their marks, falling promiscuously in the Japanese defense area of the settlement. Property was damaged but there were no casualties.

The Idzumo, flagship of Admiral Kichisaburo Nomura, was moored beside the Japanese consulate.

The Chinese, apparently satisfied with their demonstration, ceased shelling at 1 a. m. after the Japanese had returned their fire.

Terms of Ultimatum
Shanghai, Feb. 18.—(U.P.)—The Japanese ultimatum, delivered to the Chinese tonight, contained the following points and demands:

1. The Chinese must withdraw to a point approximately 12½ miles from Shanghai by 5 p. m. Saturday (3 a. m. Saturday CST).

2. The Shanghai delta from the international settlement to the sea must be demilitarized and the Woosung forts defending Shanghai razed.

3. All fighting must cease by Saturday night. The Japanese pledge themselves not to attack the withdrawing Chinese forces.

4. The Japanese will not advance beyond their present positions if the are outside the settlement but not in Chinese withdrawal. Japanese troops the direction in which the Chinese would retreat.

5. All anti-Japanese movements and boycotts must be abandoned. Japanese lives and property in the evacuated district must be protected.

The Japanese demands were concluded with a threat by Lieut. Gen. Kenkichi Ueyeda, Japanese commander, of "drastic action to enforce their acceptance and execution" unless they are complied with "before the night of February 20."

U. S. Warns Japan
Washington, Feb. 18.—(U.P.)—Consul General Edwin S. Cunningham at Shanghai has notified both Chinese and Japanese officials that their governments will be held responsible for all damage to American lives and property resulting from fighting in Shanghai.

This warning was delivered about two weeks ago. It became public today when the state department revealed it in response to questions from the press.

Washington, Feb. 18.—(U.P.)—The United States, it was predicted today in an informed quarter, will not recognize the new Manchurian state proclaimed at Mukden as an aftermath of the Japanese military campaign in China's "three eastern provinces."

New Manchurian Government
Mukden, Manchuria, Feb. 18.—(U.P.)—Manchuria's independence was proclaimed today by Chinese military and civil officials sympathetic with the Japanese.

The declaration severed all relations with China, pledged Manchuria to support the open door policy and equal opportunity and existence for all peoples, and opposed Soviet principles.

The provinces whose representatives pledged allegiance to the independent Manchuria state were Kirin, Heilungkiang, Leaoing, Jehol, Harbin, and a special area in Mongolia.

Ottawa, Ont., Feb. 18.—(U.P.)—Eighty officers of the Canadian air force, faced with loss of their jobs due to the government's economy program, have applied to Chinese Consul General Li Tehuin for service with the Chinese army in its conflict with Japan. The consul general told them he had no authority to engage them.

Luverne Probes Death of Receiver for Bank

Luverne, Minn., Feb. 18.—(U.P.)—County authorities today started an investigation into the death of C. F. Fiman, receiver for the First and Farmers bank of Luverne whose body was found at the foot of the stairs in his home.

FATHERS AND SONS BANQUET SPEAKER OUTLINES DUTIES

REV. C. M. BRANDON POINTS OUT OBLIGATIONS EACH OWES TO THE OTHER

Using as the theme of his address "A Wise Son Maketh a Glad Father," the Rev. C. M. Brandon, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal church, last night told 70 fathers and sons, big brothers and their proteges what each owes to the other following the annual banquet in the Methodist church sponsored by the Men's brotherhood.

Mr. Brandon warned the youth of their obligation of obedience while he directed the plea of sacrifice and consideration from the parent.

A feature of the program following the sumptuous banquet served by the ladies of Circle No. 1 under the direction of Mrs. George Senn, chairman, included a patriotic duet by Roger Holden and Robert Hoffman. Both were in patriotic costume.

Asking that they choose Christ as their idea, Ben Evans gave a toast to the boys. William Cochran, responded by telling what boys expect of their fathers.

The Brainerd string quartet composed of Harold Moe, Kenneth Brackner, Arvid Anderson and William Backen with Gerald Schrader as accompanist furnished the music. Fred Lind led in the group singing.

Earl Fitzsimmons, president of the Men's brotherhood, presided.

What
PRICE OF BEAUTY?

Without health there can be little natural beauty. The wise woman knows that the condition of her body shows itself on her face, her complexion, and in her eyes.

She takes care to avoid constipation. This treacherous ailment frequently causes headaches, sallow skin, pimples, premature aging.

Try the pleasant "cereal way" to protect yourself from constipation. Science has proved that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and Vitamin B to tone the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also furnishes iron, which helps build up the blood.

The "bulk" in this delicious cereal is much like that of lettuce. How much safer than abusing your system with pills and drugs—so often habit-forming!

Two tablespoonfuls daily will correct most types of constipation. ALL-BRAN is not habit-forming. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Two Entertain at Bunco Party Wednesday

Mrs. Marie Wheeler and Mrs. Esther Bourquin were hostesses to the Royal Neighbors last night at a bunco party in the Moose hall.

Honors went to Mrs. Emma Fricker and Mrs. Bida Selen. Mrs. Clara Gilmer received door prize. A delicious lunch at the close of the evening was served by the hostesses.

Christian Endeavor to Sleighride Friday

The Junior Christian Endeavor society of the First Congregational church will start from the church Friday evening on a sleighride. The members are requested to meet at the church at 7 o'clock.

Friends Enjoy Party at Fred Anderson Residence

A birthday party was given yesterday afternoon for Mary Lou Anderson in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson, 416 S. 8th street. Mary Lou was four years old yesterday.

Games were played and prizes awarded, followed by a delicious luncheon set on a table prettily decorated in yellow and green and centered by a cake. The guest of honor received many beautiful gifts.

Those present were: Betty and Robert Schaefer, Jean Hurley, Patricia Alice Dalton, Walter, Wesley and Aldon Wolhart, Eleanor Peters, Mary Ann Templeton, Betty Templeton, Everett and Francis Anderson and Donald Jensen.

Mrs. Harry Crosswell Hostess at Party

Mrs. Harry Crosswell motored with a number of guests to Lake Ann, a winter resort near Crosby, and enjoyed tobogganing yesterday afternoon. The event was in compliment to Mrs. Crosswell's guest, Mrs. Leslie Crosswell, of Big Falls, Minn.

The hostess served a delicious luncheon upon their return to her home, 29 Kingwood street.

The guest list included: Miss Mary Evans, Mesdames G. L. Boettcher, R. A. Kasper, Harry Carlson, William Murray and the Misses Eleanor Nolan and Gladys Benson.

Guild Observes Holiday at Colonial Tea Friday

George and Martha Washingtons will be numerous among the guests at the colonial tea to be served by St. Paul's Guild of the Episcopal church tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Entertainment has been arranged to commemorate the bi-centennial anniversary of Washington's birth by a skit and two specialty numbers. Nancy Hitch and Jeanne Claire Turcotte, both accompanied by Miss Marie Clark, will dance.

A predominating scheme of the national colors, red, white and blue, will be carried out.

Mesdames B. C. Pulkabek, R. M. Johnson and M. W. Richards and the Misses Irma Seeger and Ruth Louise Beise, and Mrs. Cheseborough, all in costume, will serve.

Friends are cordially invited to attend. A small admission charge will be taken.

A PETTY GRIEVANCE--

Latest blast toward disrupting the harmony of state officers comes from Julius Schmahl, state treasurer, who offers the charge that Farmer-Labor state officials purposely misrepresented facts about the emergency appropriation last summer for fighting grasshoppers.

Schmahl's charge is of a petty nature. He took exception to a statement in a recent "farm to market" letter issued over State Commissioner of Agriculture R. A. Trovaten's signature which said an emergency appropriation, granted by Governor Olson from the state calamity fund, was expended in the afflicted area.

It is doubtful whether any political significance will result from either the original statement, whether maliciously or deliberately misrepresented, or from Schmahl's protest.

ROGERS IS RIGHT--

Will Rogers, famous humorist who has a way of cracking folks of national and international reputation and getting by with it, omitted the whole story when he said that Alfred E. Smith and Franklin D. Roosevelt are "killin' each other" while Newton D. Baker is sitting quietly by and forging ahead as the leading Democratic presidential candidate.

But wouldn't it be a worthwhile Democratic strategy if after all this ballyhoo that Smith would pledge his support to Roosevelt?

CONCERTED ACTION BRINGS RESULTS--

United effort in any pursuit, regardless of its nature, must result in substantial realization of the goal. This is typified in a United Press story in The Daily Dispatch last night telling that 16,000 odd men had found work in 66 different communities through the movement sponsored by the American Legion, the American Legion Auxiliary and the Association of National Advertisers.

When the force of united effort, rolled into mammoth proportions of a countryside movement, is fully felt, consider the vast number of men that will find employment. In fact, the figures quoted above offers the first tangible evidence of what can be done to eliminate unemployment or at least alleviate a distressed condition.

Brainerd has been fortunate from the standpoint of employment despite the fact that our largest industry has only had part-time work for its hundreds of craftsmen. But, it is encouraging to note effects of unemployment relief operations in other states.

The country must rid itself of that omnipresent feeling that unemployment exists. The movement now under way bids to do more toward that end than any other form of relief proposed or undertaken.

MOBY DICK AGAIN--

A collector of rare books paid $1675 the other day in New York for a copy of an old book entitled "The Narrative of the Shipwreck of the Whale-ship Essex, of Nantucket"; and the interesting thing about it is the fact that this book once was owned by Herman Melville and seems to have contained the original thread upon which Melville's great novel, "Moby Dick," was hung.

This book told how the ship Essex, about a century ago, was rammed and sunk by a large sperm whale off the coast of Chile, and how the crew made its way to shore, 100 miles away, in small boats.

If you've read your "Moby Dick"—and if you haven't you've missed something—you'll remember that something like that was the climax of the novel, when Moby Dick, the white whale, rammed Captain Ahab's ship and sent it to the bottom with all hands.

This business of digging back to see where an author "got his idea" is always interesting. But the striking thing about it is the way it proves that the actual skeleton of the plot is the least important thing about a book.

Old Skipper Owen Chase, who wrote this story of the shipwreck, built up a book on the yarn of a whale that sank a ship, and so did Melville—but what a difference! The one book was forgotten generations ago, by everyone except Melville; the other is one of the masterpieces of American literature. With one writer the yarn was just a yarn, exciting but unimportant; with the other it became the basis for a deep, moving tale in which humanity's spiritual adventures are summed up.

One is reminded of the way Conrad wrote "Nostromo" after reading in a Central American newspaper a brief account of how a native decamped with a lighter full of bar silver. There again an insignificant little anecdote was expanded into a book of universal significance.

And that is what the creative artist is for; to see, in incidents that the rest of us would not think about twice, the chance to reveal the universe to us. The basis of his plot may be interesting, but it is unimportant. It is what he does with it that counts.

PROSPERING INDUSTRY--

A survey of the airplane industry in 1931 indicates that it withstood hard times about as well as any industry in the nation, despite the fact that only $49,000,000 worth of airplanes were built as compared with planes worth twice that much in 1929.

To begin with, all the ships that were built last year were sold—which was decidedly not the case in 1929. Production was off, but it was accurately geared to consumption, which is the important thing. Furthermore, the excess stocks built up in 1929 were largely disposed of. In addition, the air transport business showed striking gains. More lines were in operation last year, more miles were flown and more passengers were carried than ever before.

Aviation, evidently, has become a firmly-established business. Its position now is far stronger than it was before the depression began.

The dime-a-dance girl

By JOAN CLAYTON

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Beautiful ELLEN ROSSITER, a salesgirl in Barclay's Department Store, lives with her mother, MOLLY ROSSITER, her elder sister, MYRA, and her young brother, MIKE. The two girls support the family. Molly foolishly spends money saved to pay the rent. Ellen tries to get a job as a dance hall hostess at Dreamland and learns that she must have an evening dress. She has none. STEVEN BARCLAY, her employer, sees her crying and offers to give her a dress. Ellen proudly refuses but agrees to borrow a lovely white frock.

Ellen dines with Barclay and he drives her to Dreamland where he leaves her. TONY, another of the hostesses, berates and advises Ellen. Ellen hates the cheapness of the dance hall, hates taking a 10-cent ticket to dance with all comers. She slaps a man who kisses her. JACOB SALOMON, the manager, is about to discharge her when a handsome young man asks to be introduced to her. He says his name is LARRY SMITH. He goes to buy tickets and while she waits for him, Ellen forgets that she hated Dreamland, forgets Barclay's kindness, forgets everything except Larry Smith.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER VI

LARRY had bought a string of tickets, each marked "good for one dance." There were dozens. He dropped the ribbon of bright green over Ellen's bare arm so that it curled almost to the floor.

"That's for all evening," he told her. "No one else is to dance with you."

"I believe you've made a mistake," Ellen said, trying to temper the bubbling joyousness in her voice. "I think they sold you a railroad ticket to California."

"It does look like that."

Tony, gliding past, summed up the incident with approving, interested eyes. The 17-year-old plainly considered the older girl to be her protégée.

"I knew you'd be lucky, Ellen," she called over her shoulder and was gone.

"Now what did she mean?" Larry demanded.

"She meant I was lucky to find such a good—customer," Ellen advised him demurely.

"No. It's the customer who's lucky."

Their laughter rang out. Larry swept Ellen into his arms and they were caught into the emotion-laden atmosphere of the room. Boys and girls were dancing closely in the semi-darkness, cheek to cheek heart to heart. Light frocks blazed against the darker clothes of the men; white, bare arms clutched at broad shoulders—There was no sound except the muted whine of the orchestra and the swish of dancing feet, and from outside, through the open windows, the subdued roar of a never resting Broadway.

Boys and girls, in the artificial darkness, were snatching feverishly at a little moment of tawdry romance, lest it pass them by; snatching at a moment of forgetfulness of daily tasks while the saxophones moaned.

Ellen and Larry bumped into a couple who had stopped for a passionate embrace. Ellen felt again that she would weep. She did not know quite why. But she knew that if Larry Smith attempted to embrace her in that furtive darkness something shining and young and beautiful would be gone for ever. At the same time she knew that if he drew her close, close to him she could not resist.

"I don't seem to care much for this," he ventured at length, uncomfortably. And then abruptly, with no preliminaries, he asked, "What are you doing here?"

"What are you doing here?"

Ellen experienced a lightness and buoyancy of spirit as though something she feared had been passed. All at once she was able to laugh at herself. What a mad fool she had become. All of her values seemed changed. So much depended tonight upon so little. She saw that Larry was watching her face as he waited for her to answer. She gestured toward a sign on the wall.

"What about tomorrow at tea?" Larry asked.

They had to dance through the crowd and to the outskirts so that he could read. His own gray eyes lighted when he read that hostesses when dancing were limited to conversation to "yes" and "no."

"Do you like me a lot?" he inquired promptly.

Ellen feared that he would discern the swift hammering of her heart. She felt the color creeping into her face.

"Go on, tell me," he urged. "Yes or no?"

So he thought he would tease her.

"Yes," Ellen responded, but very dubiously indeed.

He looked disconcerted and then he added sheepishly, "Well that one seems to have been on me. So you think I'm taking an unfair advantage?"

"Yes!"

The second "yes" was emphatic and pointed. Their laughter rang out again.

"Well, what do you say," he suggested, "if we leave the mute dancing to those as likes it mute? I want to talk."

They were at a table and barely seated before he asked the second time, "What are you doing here?"

"Earning my living."

"Do you really mean that?"

He was plainly startled. She had on the tip of her tongue a tart retort and she observed that he was studying her dress. She had forgotten Steven Barclay until then—forgotten why she was at Dreamland, forgotten everything except that she was 20 years old and that life had become for her a thrilling and rose-hued miracle.

"Certainly I mean it," she replied.

There was no reason why she should explain to this young stranger how it happened that she was able to wear a Paris gown. It was impossible for her to do so. She had a passionate desire that he should know nothing of her responsibilities, of the care and fretting trouble which had shaded her youth. She wanted only to laugh and to forget everything else. To him she must stand for gaiety, for careless and irresponsible fun.

He was not Steven Barclay. How did she know how quickly she might, by any hasty or misjudged attempt to precipitate him into her life, turn that eager look into the expression of boredom that she had seen before.

She did not amplify her bare statement.

He was checked.

"Did you believe me," he asked after a pause, "when I told the manager my name was Smith?"

"If you say it's Smith," Ellen observed irrelevantly, "then it must be Smith."

HER tone was clear, her eyes lucid and innocent. It was the young man's turn to flush.

"I'm afraid you won't understand," he began uncomfortably before that lucid gaze, "but anyhow I must explain. My name isn't Smith. When I said it was I hadn't decided—"

"Whether or not you'd trust me with the secret," Ellen supplied smoothly.

She was not offended. Larry drew a breath of relief.

"You're being darn nice about it," he said. "Well, anyhow my name is Larry. Larry Harrowgate, age 27, occupation artist of sorts, prospects nothing!"

"I'm to take that as a warning?"

"If you want to take it that way."

They both laughed ecstatically.

"No, but seriously," he presently resumed in a voice which he tried hard to make brisk and sensible, "did you mean what you said—out on the floor? Do you really like me?"

"Seriously," she answered dutifully, although she still bubbled with excitement and laughter, "I do."

"Then that's that," he observed in satisfaction. "We're through with all the preliminaries. Now we can settle down and really get to know each other."

They were interrupted by a waiter demanding their order. Larry confessed to a ravenous appetite and not even Ellen's warning that the food might be bad prevented him from selecting almost everything on the bill of fare. When the waiter withdrew he began to rally her.

"What's wrong with you?" he inquired solicitously. "Are you a canary bird? I never saw a girl before who wouldn't eat on the slightest provocation."

"I didn't want to order anything," Ellen confessed in growing embarrassment, "because I get a percentage on what you pay."

"You foolish youngster! I wouldn't think you were a profiteer even if you'd ordered a diamond necklace. I couldn't have paid for it but then—you'd have to eat half of mine."

BUT when the food arrived, sandwiches and cakes and a bowl of steaming chow mein, decorated with slivers of chicken, neither wanted to eat. They wanted to dance again and again, to dance forever or until they dropped from exhaustion. Like children on a holiday they skylarked about the floor. Again and again they discovered with pleased and excited exclamations how well their steps fitted. Amazing, thrilling to change quickly from the languorous grace of the tango to the rowdy breathless complications of the outmoded Charleston—amazing to dance with someone who moved almost as you moved.

The whole day had been the most exciting of Ellen's life. She almost hoped it would never end. But the ending, when it came, was sweetest of all.

"You make a big difference to me," Larry summarized it with simple fervor. "Just finding you, Ellen, has made my summer for me."

"I'm—I'm glad you found me."

"We'll go places and see things, won't we—you and I? We'll have fun, won't we? What do you say, Ellen?"

"Oh, grand," she murmured.

Even in the midst of her pleasure she wondered why he did not say anything more definite. She felt a little twinge of dismay at the thought he knew where to find her, if he never returned she must remain silent. How did she know how many girls he had laughed with just as he had laughed with her?

"What about tomorrow at tea?" he was asking eagerly. "You don't work Saturday afternoons, do you?"

She drew a long, fluttering breath. "I'd love it."

She was gone.

Albert, Smith, wife and child, of Ostege, Minn., who have been visiting his mother, Mrs. C. E. Witte, returned to their home today.

Mrs. A. T. Fisher, who was operated upon at St. Joseph's hospital a few weeks ago has so far recovered as to be removed to her home today.

Fred S. Parker has closed a deal whereby he becomes the owner of the handsome E. B. McCullough home erected on Fourth street, north, a couple of years ago.

A most pleasant evening occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Quinn last Saturday evening when 60 members of the Ladies' Auxiliary A. O. H. gathered at the home of Mrs. P. D. O'Brien and proceeded to the home of Mrs. Quinn, the retiring president of the society. The had arranged a program for the occasion.

Thoughts for Lent

Thursday, February 18
"A Light Shined in the Prison"
(Read Acts 12:5-11.)

Night in prison! What darkness is more impenetrable than this? Yet, the Light of God's Presence can penetrate the dungeon walls, and God's messenger can open prison doors. All that we need to do is to wait for the Light with prayer, and be ready to follow the angel when he beckons. There comes to all of us those inescapable hours when the brightness of the world is shut out, when the walls close in upon us, and when our frantic efforts to escape meet with a resistance as solid as that of a barred and bolted door. At such times our faith is put to one of its severest tests. Can we relax and be patient? Can we wait with quiet expectancy? Can we pray with serene confidence? If so, our deliverance is sure.

Prayer: O God, who deliverest Thy servants from every sort of bondage and dost rescue those who trust in Thee from the darkness of their imprisonment, grant, we beseech Thee, that our faith may endure through the long watches and triumph over every doubt; that when Thy Light shineth and Thine angel cometh, we may be ready to accept the deliverance which Thou Thyself has prepared for us in Thy great mercy, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Fine Center Ladies Talk Project Work

Roosevelt—The Fine Center community poultry project met at the home of Mrs. John Schommer, who is one of the leaders, Thursday afternoon, Feb. 11. Only a few of the ladies were present on account of the blizzard. The lessons are interesting, mostly about diseases of poultry, care and feeding of little chicks, brooder houses, etc. A nice luncheon was served at 4 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Coffield and family, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mangold Sunday.

Misses Lorna and Bernice Cooley are spending the weekend at the home of Mrs. H. Mangold.

Some of the young folks around here went to the Valentine party Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Persson. Luncheon was served by the hostess.

Ed Snodgrass was out with the snow plow after the blizzard, plowing out the town road.

Miss Anna Mae Coffield is working in Brainerd at the home of Mrs. Ralph Russell.

Louis Schellin made a business trip to Brainerd Monday.

Several children are out of school with severe colds.

Carl Mangold, Mrs. H. Mangold and daughter Bernice and Earl Coffield motored to Brainerd Monday.

Miss Lorna Cooley is sick at her home with a severe cold.

Star's Child Guarded

Detectives have been placed around the Hollywood home of Ann Harding, famous film actress, who in private life is Mrs. Harry Bannister, to guard her daughter, Jane, 8, with whom she is shown here, from kidnappers, following receipt of a warning that the child would be abducted. Some time ago a taxi driver reported he was shot in the leg when he refused to guide intended kidnappers to the Bannister home.

Nichols Farm Reported Sold for Camp Ground

Fort Ripley—There are a large number of school children who have the chickenpox here and the school fathers are planning on suspending school until the disease passes over.

Wm. Davis, of Minneapolis, a retired farmer, who was one of the earliest settlers around here, is visiting and renewing old acquaintances at the home of Fred Lewis, well known sportsman.

A Valentine party was held at school No. 28 last Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Evelyn Grimstad, the teacher. Among those present were, Mrs. Frank Prosser, Mrs. Irving Mason, Mrs. Joe Kinkel and Miss Lillian Domschot.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Arnen are the parents of a boy. Mother and child are doing nicely at the Little Falls hospital.

Ernebelte Snow is attending high school at Pillager, now having changed from Bemidji.

The new army camp is surely getting larger. It is reported here that the Nichols farm has been bought for training ground which makes the camp about 9 miles long and 3 miles wide. The land reported purchased is in a north direction along the west side of the Mississippi river. When completed the camp will be about 6 miles by 18 miles.

Last stands of pine are slowly falling before the woodsman's axe in this locality. Domschot, Bros. & Lewis, with a crew of workers, are carrying on extensive logging operations here. Alex Domschot has entire change of the logging operations.

Carl Stroming, popular mail carrier, has double duty these days. Besides delivering mail he keeps the roads clear of snow and makes them passable for cars.

The thermometer dropped to 30 below zero during the blizzard. There was considerable damage to buildings, roads were blocked and water froze in many water tanks.

200 PUPILS OF HIGH SCHOOL HERE TESTED SAFEGUARD HEALTH

DR. HUBIN, MISS MICHAEL TO CONDUCT FINAL TEST OF CHILDREN FRIDAY

Dr. E. G. Hubin, Deerwood, assisted by Miss Eula F. Michael, city and school nurse, Wed., conducted the second test for pupils at the Washington high school to safeguard them from tuberculosis.

Of the 200 pupils tested only 16 were found positive. The latter were given thorough physical examinations.

The final tests will take place Friday at the school.

Dr. Hubin of the Deerwood Sanatorium, had the following to say regarding the tuberculin testing of school children.

"In 1931 Crow Wing county officials found it a wise procedure to have to have all the cattle in the county tested for tuberculosis, and to eliminate the positive reactors, in order that our children might be protected against this type of tuberculosis, transmitted through raw milk and other dairy products. This was a very commendable thing to do, and our officials are to be complimented for carrying it out with so much dispatch. We have thus practically eliminated one source of tuberculosis infection, but what about the human sources.

The Mantoux test is one of a number of similar tests, devised for screening out the children already infected with tuberculosis. It consists of the injection of about two drops of a carefully prepared test solution (tuberculin) under the superficial layers of the skin of the child's forearm with a very small needle. There is practically no pain connected with the injection. If the child carries tuberculosis infection in the body, redness and a little swelling appear at the point of the injection, sometimes a little soreness. This is a positive reaction, and simply means that at some time in the past the child has become infected with tuberculosis. We cannot tell from the test whether or not there is active disease. This must be determined by further observations, including an X-Ray examination.

"What, then, is the object of carrying out tuberculin surveys among school children? In the first place we find the children who have become infected, and can in time institute such measures as may be seen necessary to guard against a breakdown. But equally important, if not more so, is the opportunity afforded of finding unconnected open cases who are responsible for the infection of others, because a positive test means that someone with open tuberculosis has been in contact with the child showing such a reaction, and caused his infection. Searching for and finding the open case is of the greatest importance because we can then stop further infection by proper isolation, just as we can stop the spread of small pox or typhoid fever only if we find the open case and institute proper measures of quarantine. The enthusiastic co-operation of all interested in the health of the community, and especially of the rising generation, is necessary however for the success in the fight against the white plague, and parents are especially urged to co-operate wherever such surveys are undertaken. The test is entirely harmless."

EARLY COOK CAMP UTENSILS FURNISHED HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Crow Wing county's historical collection included today a number of cooking utensils taken from the equipment of the old time Wanigan Cook Camp outfit and were in actual use for cooking purposes on log drives on the Mississippi river in the vicinity of Brainerd during the early logging days in this district.

Many utensils on list have been used by the camp cook of early days whose duty it was to feed the men of his crew. These dishes served many of the real lumberjacks and river drivers who followed the woods and rivers as their occupation and made Brainerd their headquarters while off duty. These cooking utensils have been used in the services of the Northern Boom company and The Northwest Paper company and through the courtesy of the latter company the utensils were collected by Tom Long, old time resident of Brainerd and in charge of river work for The Northwest Paper company, and turned over to the society.

The equipment includes: lamps, 2; lanterns, 2; pitchers, 2; large dripping pan for frying meat; large bread pans for baking bread, 2; cake pan; small bean jar, large iron boiling kettle for cooking potatoes, potato masher, jug for drinking water, meat dish, butter dish, butter jar, stew kettle for soup, syrup mug, wash board and scrub brush, water keg for drinking purposes, yoke for water carrying, water pail, old water pail, coffee pot and tea pot, pancake griddle, large dish pan for washing dishes, bread pan, knife sharpener, pancake turner, small looking glass for cook, frying pan, vinegar jug; tin plates, 6; knives and forks, one half dozen; tin cups, 6; large spoons, 2; wash basins, 2; dip-pers, 2; pie plates, 3.

HEARING ON PROPOSED GAME REFUGE IN GULL LAKE AREA SET HERE FOR MARCH 5

A hearing on petition for the establishment of a game refuge containing more than 640 acres in the Upper and Lower Gull lake region embracing part of Crow Wing and Cass counties will be held in the farmers' room of the court house at Brainerd on Saturday afternoon, March 5 at 2:30 o'clock. All persons interested in the granting or refusal of the petition will be heard at this hearing.

W. D. Stewart, state game and fish commissioner, is expected to be present and conduct the hearing.

The complete description is contained in a legal notice authorized by Stewart and published in today's edition of The Daily Dispatch.

The refuge should be established, the petition sets forth, to prevent the extermination therein of waterfowl, game birds, game and other animals and to protect and preserve them.

STUDENTS ON RANGE TAKE SCHICK TEST

Students in the Crosby and Ironton schools are being given the Schick test for diphtheria immunity and the toxin-antitoxin inoculation, free treatment being arranged by the school district and the state department of health. On Thursday, Feb. 11, tests and first inoculations were given at the Jefferson school on Crosby Beach, and pupils at the Franklin school in Crosby were examined on Monday, Feb. 15. The work is being done by the doctors of the Cuyuna Range clinic, assisted by the school nurse, Miss Julia Sharpe.

Arrangements have also been made for treatment of pre-school children at the same time. All tests or inoculations are given only with the written consent of the parents, but special effort is being made to include all the school children there.

Missionary Meetings

Arranged for Lent

The Presbyterian ladies' aid of Crosby will observe Lent this year with a series of missionary meetings, the first being held on February 16 at the home of Mrs. Geo. Chamberlin. At each of these meetings, which will be held weekly, chapters will be read from books describing the work in home and foreign missions. The first book to be read will be "God and the Census."

How One Woman Lost 10 Lbs. in a Week

Mrs. Betty Luedeke of Dayton writes: "I am using Kruschen to reduce weight—I lost 10 pounds in one week and cannot say too much to recommend it."

To take off fat easily, SAFELY and HARMLESSLY—take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it is the safe way to lose unsightly fat and one bottle that last 4 weeks costs but a trifle. Get it at Johnson Pharmacy, Economy Drug Co. or any drugstore in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the safest way to lose fat—money back.

But be sure and get Kruschen Salts—imitations are numerous and you must safeguard your health. Advt.

BRAINERD TO SET PACE IN GAME WITH WADENA FRIDAY

WARRIORS TO SPEED BATTLE AS BUILDER FOR CROSBY-IRONTON

PINE RIVER JUNIORS IN PRELIMINARY; FINAL GAME AT CROSBY, FEB. 26

Brainerd will defeat Wadena by an impressive score Friday night here if the team plays anywhere near the style it showed in the Little Falls game.

The Warriors will go at top speed throughout the game irrespective of the score to reach a peak in preparation for the Crosby-Ironton battle at the range floor Friday night, February 26.

Wadena may stage a surprise on the local floor and provide plenty of scrap. The game will be the first between the two teams this season.

The combination of Templeton, Smith, Gerry Wygle, Larson and Heikkinen may again be used in the starting lineup with Swanson ready to enter the fray. Bob Wygle and Elmer Foster will see action during the game but they will be held back until the Crosby-Ironton game to prevent further setback in their conditions. Neither Foster or Wygle have been in form the last two weeks due to injury and sickness.

The Pine River juniors and Brainerd juniors will meet in the preliminary game at 7 p. m. The main event will start at 8 p. m.

The Wadena and Crosby-Ironton games remain as the final games on the regular schedule.

The Warriors will have one week to practice for the district tourney, March 4-5 here, after the Range battle.

TOWN PUMP; MRAZ CANDY WIN AT PINS

The Town Pump took three games straight from the Hoopers while the Mraz Candy defeated the Lions club in two games at Van's bowling alleys last night.

Glen Myers of the Town Pump hit 620 pins for high total and 230 for high single game.

Tonight in the ladies' games find the Northwestern Bell opposing the Russell Creamery and the Brainerd Laundry meeting the Northern States Power.

DEMPSEY TAKES ON LEVINSKY TONIGHT

Chicago, Feb. 18—(U.P.)—Almost 4 1/2 years after he had Gene Tunney on the floor for the famous "Fourteen Count," Jack Dempsey will make his first appearance in a Chicago ring in fighting regalia tonight against King Levinsky, ranked No. 7 in the heavyweight division by the National Boxing Association.

The match is billed as a 4-round exhibition, but it has all of the aspects of a real fight. Both fighters will wear 9 1/2 ounce gloves—3 1/2 ounces over the regulation size, but not too large to prevent either from inflicting damage or scoring a knockout.

A group of 23,000, the largest ever to see an indoor boxing match, will attend and enable Dempsey, most popular fighter of all time, to complete the cycle of boxing records.

Great Britain and Japan are said to be the greatest foreign investors in China, their investments being about five times those of the U. S.

HOPES FOR U. S. TRACK, FIELD TRIUMPH IN OLYMPIC GAMES RISE HIGH AFTER TRYOUTS

New Mrs. Mix

Mabel Hubbell, above, noted aerialist, whose breath-taking feat of doing 300 one-arm revolutions on a high bar without a net thrilled thousands of circus fans, has whirled her way into the heart of Tom Mix, idol of young America and other western film fans, and of late a circus star. They met under the big top and decided to be married, choosing Yuma, Ariz., as the place. Mix has been married twice before.

New York, Feb. 18—(U.P.)—Hopes of a United States track and field victory in next summer's Olympic games were brighter than ever today as a result of two world-breaking performances in last night's New York Athletic club games.

Another world record was equalled twice.

Here are the new records:

The one mile run: Time 4:10, set by Gene Venzke of Boyertown, Pa.

The 16-pound shot put: distance 52 feet, 8 3/8 inches; set by Leo Sexton of New York A. C.

Both Venzke and Sexton were the old record holders.

Sexton also surpassed the outdoor record for the shotput, 52 feet, 7 1/2 inches.

Indoor tracksters this season now have broken two outdoor world records, for George Spitz of New York U. cleared the high jump bar at six feet, 8 1/2 inches, one quarter inch higher than the record boasted by Harold Osborne of the Illinois A. C.

Venzke's victory in the mile was a smashing one. For half the distance he matched strides with his perennial rival, Leo Lermond of N. Y. A. C., then shot into the lead as Frank Crowley of Manhattan, the early pacesetter, faltered. Lermond kept up the fight for another quarter mile, but Venzke, supremely confident, reached out to improve his own record of 4:11.2.

One world record was twice equalled when Emmett Toppino, representing Loyola of New Orleans, ran the 60-yard dash in 6.2 in a qualifying heat and in the final. Ira Singer, Milrose A. A. finished second, and George Simpson, Los Angeles A. C. third.

Poker's Origination

Poker is believed to be an adaptation of the Persian card game As Nas. It entered the United States by the way of New Orleans where it was called "poque" or "poker."

No More Piles

You Can End Your Awful Misery Quick Without Cutting or Salves

Thousands of Pile sufferers do not know that the cause of Piles is internal—bad circulation of blood in the lower bowel.

That is the scientific truth about Piles—the real reason why salves and suppositories do not give permanent relief, why cutting does not remove the cause.

Your itching, bleeding or protruding Piles will only go when you actually remove the cause—and not one minute before. External treatments can't do this—an internal medicine should be used. HEM-ROID, the prescription of Dr. J. S. Leonhardt, sold by good druggists everywhere, succeeds because it stimulates the circulation, drives out congested blood, heals and restores the almost dead parts.

Dr. Leonhardt's HEM-ROID has an almost unbelievable record of success right in this city. So why waste time on external remedies or worry about an operation when H. P. Dunn and Johnson's Pharmacy invite every Pile sufferer to try HEM-ROID with guarantee of money-back if it does not end their Piles, no matter how stubborn the case?—Adv.

ENGLISH RACER PLANS QUEST FOR PIRATE GOLD

Daytona Beach, Fla., Feb. 18—(U.P.)—Sir Malcolm Campbell, 43-year-old Englishman who has driven an automobile faster than anyone else, is planning a hunt for buried Pirate treasure while he awaits conditions favorable to another record breaking speed trial.

Campbell's second quest for the treasure of Lima, reported in legend to have been hidden by Pirates 110 years ago on the Island of Cocos, in the Southern Pacific, is expected after his speed trials here and his return to England.

Cost 85 Cents To Put Rheumatic Cripple Back to Work Again Now Joyously Happy

While all his family looked on in astonishment and all his friends were amazed, one man took all the pain, swelling and agony from his tortured joints in 48 hours and did it with that famous rheumatic prescription known to pharmacists as Allenru—you can do the same.

This powerful yet safe remedy is positively guaranteed to do this—its action is almost magical. Just get one 85 cent bottle of Allenru from Johnson's Pharmacy, Economy Drug Co. or any live druggist—take it as directed and if in 48 hours your pains haven't all left you get your money back.

It works just as swiftly with Neuritis, Sciatica, Lumbago and Neuralgia.—Adv.

Rubbing Oil Best for Neuritis

You Don't Catch Cold!

When you use Emerald Oil to banish the sharp twinges, the unbearable pain of neuritis, you need have no fear that you will catch cold after it, and make more trouble for yourself.

Emerald Oil positively does not "leave your pores open." Its penetrating, soothing warmth seems to soak right down through the tissues to the very seat of your pain. Without leaving a thick coat of grease on your skin! Your skin isn't a bit sensitive after it, so you can use it freely any hour of the day or night.

Emerald Oil isn't greasy and does not stain, but it banishes pain almost INSTANTLY. Money back any time it fails, say Johnson Pharmacy, Economy Drug Co., H. P. Dunn, Druggist.—Adv.

CARDINAL CAPTAIN, PIRATE GARDENER, REFUSE CONTRACTS

New York, Feb. 18—(U.P.)—Paul Waner, star outfielder of the Pittsburgh Pirates, may be traded to the New York Giants for three players, it was learned today.

It is understood the Giants have offered infielder Sam Leslie and Eddie Marshall, and outfielder Fred Leach for the elder Waner.

Leach signed his contract with the Giants yesterday.

New York, Feb. 18—(U.P.)—Frankie Frisch, St. Louis Cardinals' second baseman is not a holdout, he said last night, denying persistent rumors of a break over salary differences.

The 31-year-old infielder, who was the "most valuable player" in the National league last season, returned recently from a baseball tour to Japan. He has been working out daily, preparatory to going to Bradenton, Fla., for spring training.

"I'm confident things will be ironed out," Frisch said. "I've always got along fine with Branch Rickey and Sam Breadon. I'll write them a letter in a couple of days and arrange for a conference."

Norwegian Girl Favored in Skating Tourney

Montreal, Feb. 18—(U.P.)—Sonja Henie, Norway, and Karl Schaeffer, Austria, women's and men's defending champions, were favorites to retain their titles in the world championship Figure Skating tournament which will finish here tonight.

The grace and certainty with which the two glided through the various patterns caused experts to believe their point standings already were far above other competitors.

Fourteen women, representing six countries, and nine men from six nations are competing. Results will be announced tonight after a conference of judges.

OFFICIALS TO MEET FOR CAGE TOURNEY DRAWINGS SATURDAY

WILL PICK B TOURNEY; MAY COMPLETE OR PARTIALLY DECIDE DISTRICT CARD

Drawings for the B basketball tournament at Staples prior to the district tournament here March 4 and 5, will be made by 25th district officials in session at Staples Saturday.

Superintendent of Schools W. C. Cobb, Brainerd, will attend. All or part of the drawings for the district tournament at Brainerd may also be completed at the same session. If not they will be completed next Wednesday.

Montreal, Feb. 18—(U.P.)—The Winnipeg Hockey team, which won the Olympic championship at the recent Lake Placid games, leave Montreal tomorrow for the United States, where they are scheduled to play a series of exhibition games in the east. They will arrive here tonight from Toronto.
